Case Study

How Did a 100-Year-Old European
Auto Giant Achieve Transformational
Growth in India?

India's Leading Recruitment, Executive
Search, and HR Legal Services Firm

Background

A 100-year-old European auto giant took its first steps in India with a small office. To make a lasting impact, they needed to find the right leader for their new automobile bearings division.

Challenges

- No established office infrastructure in India
- Limited team presence with only one transferred employee
- Requirement for trustworthy and reliable CFO/Financial Controller
- High stakes for initial hires to drive growth

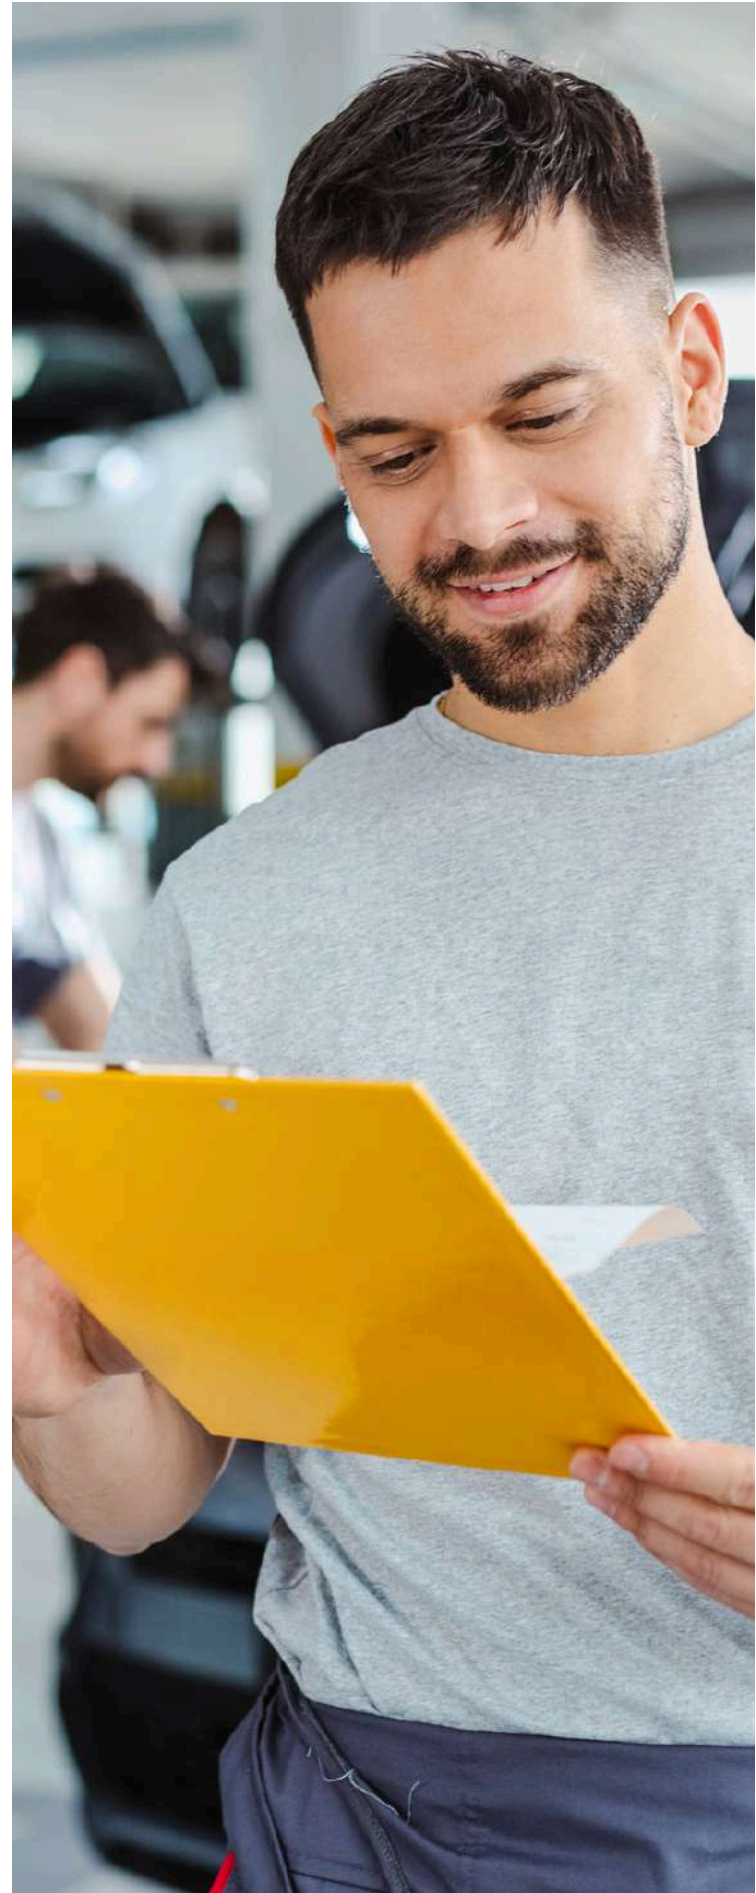

Solutions

Our team took the time to understand the European auto giant's unique needs and aspirations. We then identified and appointed a seasoned national sales head who shared their vision, values, and passion for growth.

Game-Changing Strategy

We worked closely with the European director to:

- Align business goals with leadership needs
- Identify top talent in Delhi NCR's automotive hub
- Ensure a seamless transition

Benefits

- Strategic hire fuels exponential growth in bearings
- Key partnerships forged with railway, government, textile, and auto sectors
- Significant profitability boost
- Future expansions made possible

Power of Your Leadership Team Impact

The appointed national sales head:

- Led remarkable growth in bearings
- Built strong stakeholder relationships
- Demonstrated exceptional leadership, driving team success
